cil of Freely Elected Heads of Government during a press conference at CNN

Summer

Women Leaders Join

Agenda for the Americas

continued from page 1

policy of "certification," under which the unsatisfactory Latin American and structures, and let us work together."

the process doe

Border Disputes and other regions. Still, buying sophisticated weapons diverts funds from other

Vice President Al Gore

was

Carter Center Wins Technology Transfer Award

ion Commission, and all so happy to know the end of this

of the Conc ice in Colom ia, Dr. quently ission. The prisoners were and ceding temporary the Center would facilitate future talks tion Comm

Asia and Africa how to filter their efforts to improve publ for the ... patrol and ... Presid... amy Carter, organized a disease. Among his ... $10 million. The ...

Carter Library this summer.

have served as role models for physical continued fro

Global 2000 Agriculture Program collaborates with the Sasakawa Africa soon and so fast," Ethiopia part of The Carter Center.

part of the national exp

enjoy a food

The Task Force for Child cted his minister of agriculture and

000 Country Director Marco worked to bring

injury control

tobacco-related diseases, a

issues to the fore-

methods; and more productive timetables farmers cultivate these two-acre sites through out Eth

record gr opia. One year

rmers produced a record

n harvest of 9.7 million tons

William Foege

ntry's investment has

"Dr. Foege was critical in helping

"We traveled in farm clothes, so as not

Although the cou

ystems, and ma

s time for us to redouble our efforts.

encouraged by our achievements so far,"

Prime Minister Meles said.

the Center and Emory grow even closer,

Dr. Foege's presence as a professor cannot help but enhance this r became increasingly impressed with their very high crop yields, which exceeded traditional production by 200 to 400 percent, and in charge of this process recently stated ... that he can now a China expert and member of the delegation. "People do feel they have some very good success stories in local government."

Following the elections, the Center's

1 million rural villages, where approximately 900 million people—75 percent of