Roles of Election Observers

	Nonpartisan Observation	Partisan Observation	Election Protection
Demonstrates the community's interest and support for elections that are credible, transparent, accessible to all voters, and that represent a true democratic process
Reinforces the efforts of civil society and voting rights groups in the electoral process and increases the credibility of their work

Systematically collects data and publicly reports on adherence to election law during absentee voting, in-person voting, and vote tabulation

Provides public recommendations on ways to improve the election processImage: Commendations on ways to improve the electionPlaces observers inside polling locationsImage: Commendations on ways to improve the electionMonitors outside polling locations and has internal reporting systems for incidences of voter suppressionImage: Commendation of the election	Provides a partial assessment of the electoral process locations Image: Second seco	on ways to improve the election and has internal reporting systems for incidences of voter
	and has internal reporting systems for incidences of voter

holding observers accountable

0g-07v